Children’s Stories

A farmer discovers that even though it appears his crop is destroyed by vandals that all is not lost. A fable of death and rebirth, and of faith lost and regained for all ages.

The history of Easter symbols around the world and how they reflect feelings shared by people throughout the world (ages 9-12).

Through simple language and colorful medieval-style illustrations children learn the Easter story with the Stations of the Cross.

These Easter meditations by Dietrich Bonhoeffer for older children/youth are enriched by reproductions of classic paintings.

This book chronicles the death and resurrection of Jesus as well as springtime rituals and their connection to biblical tradition (ages 6 to 10).

The themes of the Easter story are explored through contemporary application and activities which are ideal for use in primary schools or churches (ages 5-7).

Captures the wonder of rebirth in the Easter story in way that is not confusing to young children (ages 5-8).

Seven tales are tied to the Jewish Sabbath but reflective of different cultures, times and moods (ages 8-12).

As Jesus rides into Jerusalem on a donkey, the last week of his life unfolds.

The story of Jesus’ life and events leading up to His death told in simple language (ages 4 and up).

Story of Jesus’ death and resurrection in easy-to-understand language for children (ages 5-12).

A beautifully decorated egg given by a family with little to offer reminds others of God’s love.

More than a simple story, this book offers reflection questions and a prayer-celebration to help children enter into Jesus’ Paschal Mystery.

A collection of biblical quotations and selected art that illustrate the events leading up to Jesus’ death and resurrection.

The story of Holy Week is brought to life through this rhyming alphabetical journey (ages 4-8).

Describes the events and symbols of Lent and how they help us prepare for Easter.

Featuring simple vocabulary and glowing illustrations, this picture book introduces children to the true meaning of Easter.

A retelling of Jesus' last days on earth that focuses on lessons of forgiveness and love.

The story of Jesus' last days written in a straightforward manner allowing readers to find additional meaning from the paintings and symbolism in the book (ages 5 and older).

Introduces children to the meaning of the Easter celebration using Bible-based text in an easy-to-understand manner.

Activity Resources for Children

Twenty five faith enriching programs bring all ages face to face with the vital question, "What does the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ mean in my life?"

This book explores what the Easter message can mean to children as they grow up.

This book features 24 ecumenical celebrations and rituals to prayerfully mark special holy days and holidays with school-aged children.

Activities and resources for youth and children in Lent.

Offers a variety of intergenerational seasonal celebrations for the fall and winter.

An illustrated book full of activities for children and families to help better understand and celebrate the Lent and Easter seasons.

Sunday school lessons that allow parents and children to learn about the Christian faith alongside one another.

Offers Sunday school teachers and leaders of children’s ministries practical information and activities about the cycle of the Christian church calendar.

Offers a variety of activities for every season of the year.

Follows the story of Easter from Palm Sunday to Easter Day.

Includes easy-to-follow instruction for activities for multiple ages.

This book is dedicated to teaching the whole family about the season of Lent.

Offers 28 simple but complete prayer services enhanced with special activities that center on seasons and feasts, holidays, and important days.

This book is a resource of crafts, prayers, role plays, banners, more for the entire year.

This series focuses on the spiritual formation of children with enough 60 to 90 minute sessions to last from September to May.

A wealth of ideas and activities for observing the days of Lent and for celebrating the season of Easter and the Day of Pentecost.

A collection of the best plays from The Whole People of God curriculum.

This book includes resources for use on special days when children are present.

Includes sessions and hands-on activities for children before and during Holy Week.

Through a combination of scripture stories and original fictional stories, this book offers catechists and teachers an ideal way to weave gospel values with seasonal celebrations.

This book of 20 celebrations for the classroom enables teachers to bring a spiritual dimension to seasonal holidays.

Offers 52 easy, economical, and environmentally-friendly crafts.

Assists educators in bringing new vitality to their Christian education programs.

Designed to help in teaching children about a wide variety of Christian symbols.

A hands-on guide that teaches about the most significant seasons of the liturgical year.

The basic teachings of the Apostles’ Creed are presented in combination with 30 classic hymns, learning activities, and craft exercises keyed to each hymn’s theme.

This booklet describes the origin and meaning of hundreds of church symbols.

Activity Resources for Youth

This resource is designed to be a worship experience which recreates the hours following Christ’s crucifixion.

Offers useful information to teachers, youth ministers and parents about strengthening young people’s religious formation.

A collection of twenty-seven strategies to help young adolescents mark significant times in the liturgical and secular calendars.

Bring the richness of Lent and the events of Holy Week to life for youth.

Each session includes a detailed activity based on the lectionary followed by questions and suggestions that will help you guide an extended reflection period.

Contains seven programs for use in Sunday school, youth group, or Bible study.

Nearly 200 ideas for planning meaningful and memorable experiences for your kids.

Collection of 275 recipes to celebrate the joys of family and faith throughout the year.

Drama/Pageant Resources

A series of dramas that depict the life of Christ; this resource can be used from Advent through Easter.

This collection enables churches to celebrate Easter with young members by utilizing these dramas, speeches, and recitations.

This reproducible book of program material contains contemporary programs for Easter.

Reproducible Lenten dramas featuring minimal rehearsal time and parts for younger children.

The ten dramas in this book make the Sunday Gospels for the seasons of Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany come alive for youth and adults alike.

An all-new collection of fun easy-to-perform dramas based on Cycle A lectionary readings for Lent and Easter.

Inspiring and easy-to-perform dramas based on Cycle B lectionary readings for the Lent and Easter seasons.

Inspiring and easy-to-perform dramas based on Cycle C lectionary readings for the Lent and Easter seasons.

Contains sacred stories for young children during Lent.

Activity Resources for Youth Retreats

Outlines for six themes help plan a variety of senior high retreats.

The prayer services and retreats in this book explore themes central to the seasons and help young teens reflect on their faith.

Worship and Liturgy Resources

Includes a variety of creative activities for children of all ages and for children and adults together.

Takes youth groups from Shrove Tuesday to Easter Sunrise with creative worship outlines.

Suitable for group worship or personal reflection, this is a collection to accompany readers through Lent and Easter for many years.

This book paves the way for spiritual pilgrimage throughout this sacred period of the Christian year.

Gives an option for prayer based on the daily or Sunday lectionary.

This resource will lead Christians into a deeper understanding of the crucifixion and resurrection while challenging them about the down-to-earth implications of these momentous events.

Features the classic biblical story of Noah, the flood, and God’s salvation in a worship format that engages all generations.

A collection of twelve dramatic readings based on the Revised Common Lectionary.

Prayers and blessings for the many occasions and needs that arise in both school and parish life.

Provides clergy, liturgical assistants, and altar guild members with guidance for the liturgies of Lent and Easter.

Recent decades have witnessed the revival of the ancient liturgies of the Three Days — Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil.

This simple book helps families appreciate their dignity as "home churches" by showing them how to create rituals unique to their needs.

Liturgical resources from the global community.

Contains a variety of liturgical and homiletic resources for clergy and worship leaders.

Passover Resources

Accompanying the explanation of each holiday is a supplemental activity or story that enhances the enjoyment and understanding of the day.

This booklet has been prepared especially for those occasions when Christians are invited to join with members of the Jewish community to celebrate the Passover Seder.

These seders, three haggadot within one book, offer several opportunities for social action.

This book is compiled to help Christians experience the meaning of the Jewish Seder.

Offers practical tips for creating memorable and more spiritually-focused Passover celebrations.

Stations of the Cross Resources

Praying the Stations booklets are tailored to a specific audience and can be used year after year.

In this treatment of the Stations of the Cross, the authors allow a new generation of believers to re-live this drama.

Nine brief monologues for Lent, Holy Week, and Easter.

This illustrated Stations of the Resurrection provides prayers and meditations for each of the fourteen resurrection appearances recorded in the Gospels.

The Stations of the Cross for Children is a crucifixion dramatization told by children of Jesus’ era.

Stations for Teens is an invitation to reflect on the death and the Resurrection of Jesus and to prayerfully examine the meaning of those events for life in the twenty-first century.

These brief reflections, clear Scripture readings, and short prayer responses help children enter into the mystery of Jesus’ suffering, death, and resurrection.

A new look at the classic stations featuring virtues aligned with each station.

Meditations on the fourteen Stations of the Cross with artwork set in an African village in Tanzania.

A meditative journey in which readers are led re-experience the Passion of Christ.

Reflections associated with each of the traditional Stations of the Cross.

Examines the fourteen stations which are part of the historic Jerusalem Via Dolorosa.

Designed for use on Good Friday or for general devotions, A Walk in Jerusalem offers new insight into the Passion narratives and encouragement to live as Christ taught.

Leads readers to experience of the profound and transforming joy found in the risen Lord.

The nine historical stations without the five medieval additions.

This book has 26 activities and experiences based on the significant stories and themes of this important season.

A resource for congregations and individuals who want to explore the meaning of these Stations more deeply.

Adult Resources

Crafts for the creation of various Easter symbols.

Leads readers through the Church year.

Takes readers to the foot of the cross and invites them to consider the breadth of Christ’s healing, saving love, and compassion for the whole creation.

Two different understandings of the historical reality and theological meaning of the Resurrection.

This spiritually enriching resource helps incorporate into the life of the church the symbols, colors, and practices of the church year.

Twelve dramas coordinate with Revised Common Lectionary readings from Ash Wednesday through Pentecost.

This resource contains a session for Easter and a longer one for Lent.

Blending prayer and praise and building upon the ancient wisdom of Celtic Christianity.

A unique synthesis of the four gospel accounts of the passion and resurrection of Christ.

Reflection and Meditation Resources

The guiding principle of the meditations is that the contemplation of Jesus’ suffering, death, and resurrection ‘loosens’ the roots of compassion within our own hearts.

A variety of guided meditations for Lent, Holy Week, Easter, and Pentecost

Viewing Lent through the lens of classic spirituals.

Lenten program based on the feature film Chocolat.

Daily readings for the Lenten season by many of Christianity's most celebrated authors.

A look at scripture through a lens that reconciles our Christian tradition with modern scientific discoveries.

Spiritual wisdom and comfort to help Christians approach Easter with full hearts and spirits.

A series of meditations based on the assigned biblical texts for each day of the Church year.

A guide to Lent that invites spiritual observance and a willingness to be transformed by grace.

From the stark beginning of Ash Wednesday to the joyous climax of Easter Sunday, these meditations will feed your faith, renew your hope, and bless abundantly your journey of love.

A reimagining of the Stations of the Cross based on the last hours of Christ's life.

Uses the popular film as a medium to introduce viewers to Jesus.

Daily meditations that connect baking bread, food and social justice.

Meditations connected to a theme that Jesus addressed frequently.

Reflections by Henri Nouwen that are anchored in scripture and prayer.

This volume rebuffs the notion that Lent is simply a time to 'give up' something enjoyable.

Filled with prayers, blessings, and other liturgical celebrations for use at home.

Readings and meditations that will guide the household on the path from Lent to Easter.

Experiencing The Passion of Jesus is a study and discussion guide for the movie designed primarily for use in small groups or for individual study.

Creates a pathway from Ash Wednesday to the empty tomb of Easter through art and meditations.

An insightful program of prayer for Christians dedicated to the contemplation of Lent and the celebration of Easter.

In these spiritually uplifting memoirs, Tickle records the richness of faith in everyday life.

Carefully selected passages from the writings of the one Anglican’s great mystics.